

The SOUTH-CAROLINA Gazette.

South-Carolina.

By HIS EXCELLENCY

WILLIAM HENRY LYTTTELTON, Esq;

Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over the said Province;
And Vice-Admiral of the same.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS a Proclamation was issued on the Twenty fifth Day of October last, prohibiting and restraining the Exportation of Provisions from any Part of this Province: I have thought fit, with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, to issue this my PROCLAMATION, hereby revoking and making void the aforesaid Proclamation, so far as it extends or may be construed to extend, to restrain the Exportation of Provisions to any of His Majesty's Dominions. And I do hereby strictly charge and command all the Officers of His Majesty's Customs, to take Notice of, and pay due Regard to this my Proclamation.

By His Excellency's Command,
John Murray, pro Dep. Secr.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said Province, at the Council-Chamber in Charles-Town, the 22d Day of November, Anno Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-Six, and in the Thirtieth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

William-Henry Lyttelton.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

CHARLES-TOWN, Nov. 25.

WE have certain Accounts, that the Cherokee's mentioned in our last, arrived at the Habersham Fort on the 16th of last Month accompanied by two Shawane's, and two Frenchmen with Dispatches. That, on the 18th, they had a Meeting with the Upper-Creek's, to whom the Shawane's presented a Red Stick, and solicited them to take Part in the War in which they were engaged, against the English's. But, that the Wet King, (who had previously ordered all his Warriors to be ready at a Call, to come arm'd with their Guns and Hatchets, and painted red; being deceived, in Case he should find any of the Creek Headmen disposed to listen to the Shawane's Proposals, to begin a War upon the Shawane's, Cherokee's and Frenchmen then there), declared to them, that, "before an Englishman should be hurt, he "and every one of his Warriors would sacrifice their "Lives to protect them;" whereupon all the Creek Headmen, declared likewise, that "these were also "their Sentiments," and threw the Red Stick away. That one of the Frenchmen proceeded with his Dispatches for Mobila, with 5 of the Cherokee's; and the other returned with the Shawane's for the Northward, with Letters that were directed to him at the Habersham Fort. That these Shawane's had brought a Red Hatchet with them from the Northward, and left it in one of the Over Hill Cherokee Towns (where they had excited some Jealousy) which was to have taken it up, in Case the Creek's had taken up the Red Stick; whence we may, in some Measure, account for the late extraordinary and suspicious Conduct of the Little Carpenter's and some other Cherokee's. Upon the Whole, it may be presumed, that the Resolution of the Creek's bids fair, for an happy Issue to our Agent's Negotiations, and to put all our Indian Affairs upon a good Footing.

As the Embargoes and Prohibitions heretofore laid in the Northern Provinces, have been found ineffectual to answer the Ends proposed by them (for when the Ports of one Government have been shut, those of some neighbouring one have been generally laid or left open), it is thought, a general Embargo or Prohibition (throughout the Continent) will be ordered on one and the same Day, and continued for Three Months, as the only Means to prevent the French getting such large Supplies of Provisions for their Colonies and Troops in America, as they have hitherto obtained through the Channel of Dutch Island, &c. That an Embargo on Provisions will also be laid, at the same Time, in all the British Islands: And that a sufficient Number of Ships of War will be kept cruising, not only off the Mouth of the River St. Lawrence, but also off the Mississippi and Mobila, (where the Navigation is always open), to prevent any further Reinforcements reaching Canada by either of these Rivers.

Various Reports have prevailed for some Days past: Among others, That a Squadron of French Men of War, and a Number of large Transports, with Troops on board, were lately arrived at Quebec: {A Paris Article in the London Papers, hath told us, that, notwithstanding the Vigilance of Mr. Boscawen, (while he was in Pursuit of some Martinique Ships) M. de la Moite had found Means to slip out of Br. St. in the Night, with nine Ships of the Line and two Frigates.] And that a considerable Embarkation of Troops, which had been for some making at Cape Francis, (thought at first to be designed on an Expedition against Barbados or Jamaica) was lately sent to Mississippi: [Which, who he can say, is false?] — Tho' these Reports may be groundless, which we cannot say they are, yet it becomes us, to consider that such Things may happen; and to provide against what ever might arise therefrom.

We have nothing remarkable by the last Post, but that His Excellency the Earl of Loudoun is expected at his Government of Virginia this Winter.

'Tis said, that considerable Rewards will soon be offered, to both Creek's and Cherokee's, to take and deliver up to us, any Shawane's or Frenchmen that shall hereafter come into or pass thro' their Countries, especially for such on whom any Dispatches are found.

On Saturday last the General Assembly of this Province adjourned to the Third Tuesday in January next.

On Tuesday arrived here a Vessel from St. Kitt's, in 22 Days, the Master of which informs us, that the Day before he sail'd, arrived there a French Letter of Marque Ship, taken by Capt. Reed in a Privateer belonging to that Island, after a smart Engagement of 4 Hours, which mounted 22 Guns, had 60 Men,

Men, and was bound from Old France for Martinique with a Cargo of Provisions &c. That the French in the Islands have no Privateers of any Force at Sea; but, nevertheless, had taken 28 English Vessels (amongst them 3 Guineymen) which were carried into Guadaloup and Martinique. And that our Privateers were numerous in those Parts.

The same Day arrived here, Capt. Davis from Rhode Island, who tells us, that Lord Loudoun had dismissed the Reinforcements lately sent him from New-England, having no Occasion for their Service this Winter; but that warm Cloathing had been sent for, for the Provincial Troops at Lake George, whence it was concluded, that they would continue in His Majesty's Pay all the Winter, and remain there, in order to open the Campaign early next Spring.

Yesterday put in here, being very leaky, and having sprung her Fore-mast, the Snow Shropshire, Henry Robinson Master, from Jamaica for London.

Extract of a Letter from New-Providance, dated the 13th Instant

"Is it not amazing, that so opulent a People as you are should have no Thoughts of distressing the Enemy by Privateers, when two have been already fitted out from this small Island, and two more are preparing for that Purpose? The French would not be so favourable to your Trade, had they your Ability, and so convenient a Port. — We have made a beginning here by two Prizes, a Ship a Schooner, both taken by the Recovery Privateer, Arthur Fleming Commander. The Ship is called La Formidable, Burthen 350 Tons, a Letter of Marque, with 8 six-Pounders and 35 Men, and was last from Rochelle, loaded with Wine, Flour, and Oil, and other Sundries: The gallant Messieurs, after firing 5 or 6 Shot at the Sloop, (which was obliged to row up and intended to board) ran the Ship ashore near Port au Paix, and quitted her (all but 3 Hand) with the utmost Precipitation, leaving 70 loaded Muskets upon Deck: The Privateer's People did not suffer her to lay long there, but cut the Cable and brought her away. The Schooner was taken two Days before the Ship, and bound from Mississippi to the Cape, loaded with Timber for Mills, Leather, and Tobacco. — And on Thursday last a Sloop was sent in here, by the Young Recovery Privateer, Capt. William Drake: She belongs to St. Eustatia, and had been to Cape Francois with Flour and Nails, and is now loaded with Sugar, Indico &c."

MOSES LINDO gives this public Notice, that he is arrived from London, with an Intent to purchase INDICO of the Growth and Manufacture of this Province, and to remit the same to his Constituents in London, classed, sorted, and packed in a Manner proper for the Foreign Market. — If any are desirous to know upon what Credit, and to what Extent he purposes to carry on this Branch of Business, he begs Leave to refer them for Particulars to Mr. John Rattray, who is possessed of his Papers, and to whom he is recommended.
